

Subordinate Clauses

Holger Diessel
University of Jena

holger.diessel@uni-jena.de <http://www.holger-diessel.de/>

Subordinate clauses

---

Exercise

---

- (1) The man who Peter talked to at the store is his father.
- (2) I am looking for the key that was on table before I left.
- (3) Sally noticed the man who came into the store.
- (4) This is the cat whose kitten we found in the barn.
- (5) The dog running down the street is barking.
- (6) Mary wants the ball Peter is playing with.
- (7) That's the boy who Peter gave the ball (to).

Exercise

---

- (1) He makes me cry.
- (2) That's all I want.
- (3) Leaving home I noticed that I was running late.
- (4) Show me the stuff Sally bought when she was here.
- (5) It is quite likely that Peter will win the game.
- (6) To make more money you have to work harder.
- (7) The car parked on the other side of the street has a flat tire.
- (8) If it is raining we will meet at the corner where you picked me up last time.
- (9) I want you to give me the book Peter talked about.
- (10) Since the arrival of the British team they tried to impress their hosts.

Coordination

---

- (1) a. Peter and Mary
b. come and go
c. in the garden and on the street
d. Mary is sleeping and Peter is working

Kawaiisu

(2) iga-k-na=ina
Enter-DIR-COMP-3SG
'He came in kakari-na=ina sit-COMP-3SG

(and) sit-COMP-3SG

Adverbial clauses

---

1. temporal clauses
2. causal clauses
3. conditional clauses
4. purpose clauses
5. concessive clauses
6. conditional concessive clauses
7. result clauses

Adverbial clauses

---

- (1) We left after Mary had given her speech.
- (2) We left because Mary wasn't there.
- (3) We will leave if Mary isn't there.
- (4) We will leave in order to see her.
- (5) We left early although it was a great party.
- (6) We will leave early even if I don't have to work tomorrow.
- (7) We left early so that Peter wouldn't miss the train.

Adverbial clauses

---

- (1) a. Peter admitted that Mary was right [before he left].
b. [Before he left] Peter admitted that Mary was right.
c. Peter admitted, [before he left], that Mary was right.

- (2) a. Peter admitted that Mary was right [and (then he) left].
b. *[And he left] Peter admitted that Mary was right.
c. *Peter admitted, [and he left], that Mary was right.

Adverbial clauses

---

- (1) a. When he<sub>i</sub> came to Leipzig, Peter<sub>i</sub> met Mary.
b. *He<sub>i</sub> came to Leipzig, and Peter<sub>i</sub> met Mary.

- (2) a. What did you tell her ___ when you left?
b. *What did you tell her ___ and you left.

Cosubordination

---

a. his-u?a-ke-ʔka

do-we-DS-you

‘If we do this,

b. naki a?nemo-ka

hoya

ali-ʔka

so woman-you garden

work-you

you woman work the garden

c. naki ali ha?noma

hu-ne?atale-ʔka

so work finish

do-COMPL-you

when you have finished the work

d. popo hu-ʔka

hoe do-you

you hoe

Cosubordination

---

e. inunakae-ʔka weedsburn-you you burn the weeds

f. naki haʔno
so finish
when it is finished

hu-talete-ke-taʔa
do-COMPL-DS-we

g. naki viemoka-taʔa
so men-we kekiʔyamoʔma fence haʔnoma finish nehis-i-ana make-it-IRR

we men will finish making the fence.'

Cosubordination

---

	Coordination	Cosubordination	Subordination
Dependency	-	+	+
Embeddedness	-	-	+

Complement clauses

---

- (1) That the students are always late is annoying.
- (2) The teacher is annoyed that the students are always late.

Complement clauses

---

- (1) Peter tried to convince John to leave.
  - (2) Sally made me cry.
  - (3) John persuaded me to leave.
  - (4) Bill expected his brother to be there.
-
- (5) The car parked on the other side of the street is blue.
  - (6) While working on the homework assignment, I fell asleep.

Complement clauses

---

- |                        |                      |
|------------------------|----------------------|
| 1. verbs of perception | see, hear, smell     |
| 2. mental state verbs  | think, know, believe |
| 3. communication verbs | say, tell, argue     |
| 4. verbs of desire     | wish, hope           |
| 5. manipulative verbs  | make, force, cause   |